Greetings,

This year marks the 43rd Annual Harvest Dinner event, hosted by the UC Santa Barbara Educational Opportunity Program (EOP). The Harvest Dinner is one of the longest standing events at UCSB and is a time for students, faculty, staff and community members to come together to recognize, honor, and celebrate our American Indian students as well as the local American Indian community.

A silent auction will be held at this year's Harvest Dinner which takes place on Tuesday, November 13, 2018 at 5:30 p.m. in Corwin Pavilion. Proceeds from the silent auction go directly to the UCSB American Indian Cultural Resource Center (AICRC) Scholarship Fund. The AICRC Scholarship Fund supports the advancement of American Indian undergraduate students in higher education by providing students with funding for books and course materials.

In order to meet the needs of our expanding student population, we need your help! We ask that you consider donating items and/or services to be auctioned at the event. Please complete the Silent Auction Donation Form and return it to the Educational Opportunity Program front desk or submit via email to Luther@ucsb.edu by Tuesday, November 6th.
